

Loss Control Consultant

---

Loss Control Department
Reports to the Senior Vice President, Loss Control

Summary and Purpose

Work with large accounts in a wide range of industries, identifying and addressing loss causes. Assist underwriting with the selection and pricing of profitable business via the completion of routine loss control surveys of accounts of all sizes. Responsible for assisting key accounts with the development and implementation of viable safety/loss control programs.

General Responsibilities

Risk Selection:

- Conducts surveys of new and proposed clients
- Evaluates information regarding risk within established guidelines and provides a recommendation to underwriting regarding the risk's desirability
- Documents survey results with written reports to underwriting
- Develops and communicates to client, recommendations to correct deficiencies identified
- Follows up on submitted recommendations, and is responsible for determining the appropriateness of the risk's action taken to comply
- Performs insurance to value calculations using construction cost estimation software

Risk Improvement:

- Meet with key clients to assess needs and define expectations from loss control standpoint
- Review loss data as needed, quarterly, monthly, etc. to identify trends, problem areas, and/or to monitor impact of loss control activities that are in place
- Develop service plans and agreements that control the exposures identified or address specific loss issues
- Perform risk-specific loss control activities including, but not limited to:
  - Walk through inspections
  - Hazard analysis
  - Job Safety Analysis/Task Demand Analysis
  - Supervisor Training
  - General Safety Training
  - Assistance with Safety Program Development
  - Loss Control program audits
  - Develop and assist in the implementation of safety programs and procedures
  - Identification of industrial hygiene exposures
  - Provide clients with written loss control materials/information
  - Research codes and consensus standards as necessary to assure that proposed recommendations are appropriate
- Perform other duties as assigned

Professional Development

Continuing education, certification, and professional development is recognized by Alaska National Insurance Company as being of great value to the employee, the client, and the Company. As such, ANIC encourages, and expects incumbents in this position to seek appropriate certifications (CSP, CIH, ARM, ALCM, etc.), as well as retain membership in organizations which promote safety and loss control.

Minimum Requirements

- Bachelor's Degree in Safety, Engineering, or a related field
- CSP or CIH designation required.
- ARM designation required.
- Ten years of experience as a practicing safety professional
- Working knowledge of industrial operations, hazard recognition, and loss control techniques
- Ability to reference and interpret applicable codes, regulations, and consensus standards
- Basic working knowledge of insurance involving workers' compensation, property, general liability and auto coverage and exposure
- Above average written and verbal communication skills
- Able and willing to travel overnight up to 40% of the time

Attributes

- Strong interpersonal and explanatory skills
- Demonstrates above average problem solving skills
- Micro computer literate